

DEVICE 2: PAINTING SIN WITH THE COLORS OF VIRTUE

Satan presents sin to us by concealing its true colors. He paints it over with the colors of virtuousness. He does this to more easily deceive us and causing us to desire the sin more. He calls the sin of pride ... neatness and cleanliness. He calls covetousness, good business sense. Drunkenness, he labels as good fellowship. Wild and senseless riotousness, he calls liberality. Wantonness, he calls youthful behavior.

Remedy 1 – Never think of any sin as anything but filthy, vile, and abominable [Proverbs 8:13]. No matter how honorable a label Satan has given it, don't believe it. A poisonous pill can come in a candy shell. A sheep's skin covering a wolf, won't make it harmless. The devil may appear as an angel of light, but he is still evil. Likewise, sin is sin, no matter how rewarding it appears.

Remedy 2 – Sugar coating sin, by making it look like a virtue, makes it more dangerous to the human soul [Isaiah 5:20].

Remedy 3 – When you die all your sins will be exposed [Revelation 20:12]. Their ugliness will become clear. What appeared delightful to you while still alive on earth, will be shown to be dreadful. Beware.

Remedy 4 – You need to take this seriously. Even those sins with the most virtuous colors, and sugar coatings, cost Jesus His blood that He shed on the cross. Your sins cost Jesus His life. So, take revenge on your own sins, by not continuing to walk in those sins.
